Excerpt of pertinent information :

The following is the gist of an interview with the manager of the Malaxa Tube Factory:

1. In a fracas between FND and a National Peasant group at the Malaxa plant on 20 February, source escaped arrest by the factory committee through the protection of the Russian commission working there which took him out of the area in a Russian car.
2. Source reported the above to Radescu on 21 February. On that occasion Radescu indicated that he had no intention of resigning. He is said to have stated, "I have only 3,000 armed men in Bucharest and need the citizens' help. The fate of the country will be decided within the next three or four days."
3. Source thought revolution is in the air and the only way out is by hard fighting. OSS WASHINGTON NOTE: It is reported that the Bucharest press has announced a mass meeting against Radescu which was to take place on 24 February. . . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
